THE HOLY POST

26th Sunday in Ordinary Time-Year C September 28, 2025

FIRST READING: Woe to the complacent rich! (Amos 6:1a, 4-7)

PSALM: "Praise the Lord, my soul!" (Psalm 146)

SECOND READING: Seek after virtues with lasting value. (1 Timothy 6:11-16)

GOSPEL: There once was a rich man, and at his gate lay the beggar Lazarus. (Luke 16:19-31)

The rich man chose to ignore poor Lazarus, begging right outside his door. But notice that he immediately recognizes Lazarus when he sees him resting in the bosom of Abraham. He even knew his name! He cannot say that he wasn't aware that while he lived in splendor, a man just outside his palatial home longed for the scraps from his table. We too are aware of more people in poverty than we want to admit. We may choose to look away from the panhandlers, or the folks lined up at the food pantry. Today, these are our Lazaruses, hoping for just a smidgeon of what we have. - Pastoral Patterns

BECOMING CATHOLIC is a joyous experience! Some receive this gift as an infant, while others have come into the Catholic community later in life. The process is called the Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (RCIA), guided by Father Cashen, but ultimately is a personal journey of discernment in faith. If you, a family member, or a friend are interested in learning more about the Catholic faith, please speak with Father for information on joining the next RCIA classes, starting soon.

COME PRAY THE ROSARY BEFORE MASS

Join us in praying the Rosary together at 9:40 am before Sunday Mass. If you need a Rosary, written instructions, or wish to lead the rosary, please speak to Father Cashen.

Rosary Leaders: (No Rosary 10/5 & 10/12)
