THE HOLY POST

29th Sunday in Ordinary Time — Year C October 19, 2025

FIRST READING: As long as Moses kept his hands raised up, Israel had the better of the fight. (Exodus 17:8-13)

PSALM: "Our help is from the Lord, who made heaven and earth." (Psalm 121)

SECOND READING: The scriptures train you to stay with the task. (2 Timothy 3:14—4:2)

GOSPEL: Be persistent in prayer, especially in the pursuit of justice. (Luke 18:1-8)

Along our journey of discipleship, each of us has undoubtedly been tempted to give up. Beaten down by tragedies and disappointments, is our faith strong enough to enable us to persist in loving God and loving neighbor? To pursue justice and peace? To continue to build the kingdom? Today's readings call us to be persistent on our faith journey, even when we are faced with great difficulties. May hope, which we celebrate this Jubilee Year, sustain our stamina to the end of our days. - Pastoral Patterns

Are you interested in adding the joy and comfort to your daily life that praying the rosary can bring? All are welcome to join a small prayer group, comprised mostly of our parishioners, that prays the rosary via conference call every evening at 5:30 pm. To be added to the call list, see Carol Castor.
